

I highly value the peace of not hearing my phone ring by persons trying to sell something. Do not mess with our Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. It is working fine. (If it ain't broke - don't fix it.) You have better things to do. Be constructive, not destructive. If you enjoy answering your home phone - to be greeted by a complete stranger... give me your home phone number. Maybe I can get several hundred (thousand) Hoosiers to entertain you.
